

If we desired to be bothered by useless phone calls we would not have requested to be on the "Do Not Call" list. Please do not side with the Banking Industry against the common man. I know they contribute via PAC connections, but we contribute via taxes. Thank You